

Cody Lewis

University of Illinois, B.S. Agricultural and Consumer Economics, 2019

University of Illinois, MBA, 2024

Cody Lewis is a Regional Grain Trading Manager for Archer Daniels Midland on the Ohio River. Cody joined ADM fulltime in 2019 after various internship during his undergraduate years. He has spent time in numerous grain merchandising and trading roles for ADM. Currently in his role, he oversees the risk positions for eight river terminals on the Ohio River that originate grains and oilseeds for exports to United States Center Gulf.

Cody also serves as a Committee Apprentice Member for the National Grain and Feed Association on the Trade Rules committee.

In his spare time, Cody enjoys being outdoors working out, biking, walking, and mowing his lawn.